 Aylah is true to her astrological make up, she embodies the archetypes of natural teacher and healer .

With interests that span this and other planes of existence, Aylah is thorough in her research and always makes readily available the most advanced information and resources while speaking with wisdom gained from personal experience.
 She credits her love of education to her own desire to "know" a trait typical to her ascendant Sagittarius.

Her Readings are interactive. Her goal is to investigate and interpret, by using tarot cards, the type of vibrations you are attracting into your auric field. Using her nurturing approach to teaching (also very typical to Cancerians), Aylah actively engages you to help you understand those vibrations, and how they are affecting you and the co-creation of your physical experience.

Invoking Archangel Michael

'I invoke the Mighty Archangel Michael to bring me strength and courage and bring positive results to my endeavors including this particular reading. I ask that he cut all negative attachments and cords with his sword of blue light. I ask that he place his deep blue cloak of protection around me, and allow in the highest purest light to enter my aura.'
